SIXTY YEAR OLD EVANSVILLE MAN SENTENCED FOR DISTRIBUTION OF SEXUALLY EXPLICIT MATERIAL INVOLVING MINORS

PRESS RELEASE

Susan W. Brooks, United States Attorney for the Southern District of Indiana, announced that GAIL KAMMERER, 60, of Evansville, Indiana, was sentenced to 27 months imprisonment yesterday by U.S. District Judge Richard L. Young following his guilty plea to distribution of sexually explicit material involving minors. This case was the result of a investigation by the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

KAMMERER plead guilty to the offense during a change of plea hearing held on May 19, 2005. KAMMERER, using a computer he operated from his residence in Evansville, Indiana, e-mailed four images of minors engaging in sexually explicit conduct to an undercover law enforcement officer outside of Indiana on March 24, 2003.

According to Assistant U.S. Attorney Todd S. Shellenbarger, who prosecuted the case for the government, Judge Young also imposed 2 years supervised release following KAMMERER's release from imprisonment. During the period of supervised release, KAMMERER must register as a sex offender and participate in a counseling program for sex offenders and he must not have contact with minors or possess a computer.
